

Simon Amos Duku

Board Position applied for: One Director for municipalities of less than 100,000

Head Asset Management Team members (7) as Asset Management Coordinator
Town of Drayton Valley Municipality, Alberta, Canada.

Responsible for steering Asset Management Team in Asset Management planning, Asset management data and information collection, trainings, presentation of assessment reports, financial reports, condition and risk of Assets, representation of the team reports to councillors, Collaborate and alignment with departments manager, working to achieve the municipality vision, goal and objectives. Head of Asset management team meetings in developing agenda and controlling of the forum.

I have 10 years working as Canadian international expert in 6 developing countries in educational Development, communities project development on sustainability livelihood, Gender analysis, teacher development, project development, monitoring and evaluation.
I have 7 years experience in Inventory management in companies and 1 year with government of Alberta. And now as Asset Management Coordinator in Town of Drayton Valley Municipality.

My interest is to contribute effectively to Asset Management in Municipalities and counties in struggling in managing their assets to maximizing services with minimum resources.
When select to join CNAM board member my vision is Municipalities and counties of population less than 100,000 achieve grants and trainings to maximizing service delivery to the communities.

